KILLING AT LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 5—Robert Dalton Burdine, a well known young man, was murdered and W. D. Hays, his cousin, probably fatally hurt, in a fight with negroes on the river front yesterday. The young men, who are members of the Louisville Boat club, left for a sail in the afternoon, accompanied by several fellow club members and as they were passing Towhead Island, were attacked by several negroes who threw lumps of coal into the boat. The boat tied up, and its occupants started after the negroes, chasing them into a yard, where Will Fletcher, colored, seized an ax and striking Burdine over the head, killed him instantly. Hays attempted to secure the ax from the negro, but was assaulted from behind and badly injured. The police arrested four negroes, including Fletcher, although fully twenty were concerned in the assault.

He is said to be worth about $75,000.

FROLIC HAS BEGUN

Red Men's Week of Fun Started Off.

The Carnival Company Is on the Grounds—Crowds Begin to Arrive.

BIG PARADE AT 6:30 P. M.

The first day of the carnival has not been a very lively one, partly because the festivities do not usually get into play until the second day, and partly because the weather was very ugly most of the day.

There are quite a number of strangers in the city, but the crowds will not arrive until later in the week. Tomorrow the influx will begin.

The Heck Carnival company arrived yesterday afternoon from Cairo, and the shows have been placed in position at the grounds at 14th and Broadway and everything is ready for the opening this evening.

The parade at 6:30 should not be forgotten, and the prospects are for a large crowd to see it. The Carnival company has its entire outfit, and in addition will put on as a free attraction Tuesday evening one of the most expensive and beautiful spectacular attractions on the road, "Niagara Afire." It costs $300 to put it on one time and should be seen by everybody.

The Red Men today opened headquarters at the festival grounds, and there is nothing but business and bustle both at the down town and the carnival headquarters.

One feature of the carnival parade tonight at 6:30 will be the battle at Fourth and Broadway between Captain John Smith and followers and the Indians, who will capture him but who will later be charged and Smith rescued by Pochahontas, the well known historical story being reproduced in all reality possible. This will be a feature well worth seeing and the corner will probably be well filled with spectators desirous of seeing the battle. The float was prepared by Patrol Driver John Austin.

Suspended above the entrance to Foreman Brothers on lower Broadway is one of the most unique displays in the city. It represents "Old Paducah" up to date and is an automobile seated in which is the figure of an Indian. The wheels consist of clusters of electric lights which revolve and at night present a very pretty appearance.

The people are warned against wearing diamonds or jewelry of any description in a conspicuous place, or leaving their home without seeing that everything is securely locked. Thieves and grafters follow every carnival company, despite the efforts of the police, and it requires the utmost precaution to prevent thefts and pocket picking.

No rowdyism will be permitted during the week. If any effort is made to throw rubber balls, confetti containing dust, pepper or bags containing flour, such offenders will be promptly arrested for disorderly conduct. In Cairo last week a young lady was struck in the eye by one of the rubber balls and her sight almost destroyed.

Prof. Deal's band gave a concert in front of carnival headquarters this morning, attracting a large crowd. They appeared for the first time in their new red uniforms.

Remember, Republicans, if you fail to register next Tuesday you lose your vote.

HE BECAME VIOLENT

Man Residing on Mayfield Road is Insane.

Secured Knife and Pitchfork and Held Officers at Bay—Was Captured Today.

ADJUDGED INSANE AT ONCE

Sheriff Lee Potter today left for the old Ochsblachlager place on the Mayfield road a few miles from the city to arrest and bring to the city John Moore, a young white man who is said to be violently insane.

According to the report made to County Attorney Eugene Graves, Moore has been acting strangely for several days past. He finally became so bad that officers were sent for to come and take him into custody and have him tried for insanity.

Yesterday an effort was made by Sheriff Potter to arrest him, but armed with a big knife and pitchfork the maniac climbed into a loft and successfully defied everybody. As there was only one hatchway through which to enter the loft, he had the only place of egress blocked, and could not be taken.

Sheriff Potter was more successful this morning. He had to break down a door and take the young man by force, however. It is understood that cigarettes and whiskey caused the young man to lose his mind.

The case was heard by Judge Lightfoot at 2 o'clock and the defendant was adjudged insane and will be taken to Hopkinsville tonight or tomorrow.

NO PLEADINGS

A DIFFERENCE OF OPINION IN DEMOCRATIC MUDDLE.

An attorney for Mr. J. Henry Smith stated today that all the pleadings necessary have been filed with the Democratic city committee in order to settle the nomination for city treasurer, and that it was up to the committee to fix a time for hearing the motion. Colonel R. G. Caldwell, the city chairman, however, stated that no pleadings have been filed, the inference being that he does not deem the papers already filed adequate and will not recognize them as a pleading. Consequently the committee has not set a time for hearing the contest motion.

A great deal of public interest is manifested in what action the committee will take this time.

SERIOUS CONDITION.—Mr. W. B. Padgett and Mr. Ed. Smith, who were injured in a run away last week are both still in a serious condition. It was at first thought neither was hurt.

NEW U. S. ATTORNEY.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 5—The president today appointed John P. Nields to be U. S. attorney for Delaware.

THE OLD TIME FAIR

Large Crowds are Expected Tomorrow at Opening

The Prize Ring, Races and Other Attractions Will Be Well Patronized.

RACES IN THE AFTERNOON

The McCracken county fair and races begin at West End fair grounds tomorrow and will hold the boards for the remainder of the week. A fine program of races and special attractions has been provided and the people who attend may be assured that there will be plenty of excitement and amusement for all.

The racing program for tomorrow is attractive and includes the derby, a 3-4 mile running race, in which there will be some of the crack horses of the country. The other events for tomorrow are the 3 minute trot or pace, 3 in 5, the 1-2 mile heats, running, 2 best in 3, and the green plow horse race, 1-2 mile dash.

Besides the races there will be exhibitions of the diving elks, which dive from a 40-foot tower into six feet of water; the educated horse Forest Tom post, will be seen in his famous cake walk act and other feats; Trixie, the trick horse, will amuse and delight the crowd with her clever acts; Bonnie's band of bagpipers and dancers, clad in native Highland costume, will give their unique exhibition; the trick donkey and three clowns will afford unlimited amusement; the monkey will walk a rope, and those can keep from laughing who can; diving dogs, acrobats and other specialties will be given, all of which will make a program rarely seen upon any fair ground. The admission is only 25 cents to all, all the specialties mentioned being given free in front of the grand stand, each day.

No gambling devices will be allowed and the management give assurance that everything connected with the fair will be clean and unobjectionable. The show rings of stock will begin at 10 a. m. and continue until noon. The races will be called promptly at 2 p. m.

Great interest is felt in the success of the fair and our people generally want a good county fair maintained here every year. If the weather should be favorable great crowds will doubtless attend.

Mr. Robertson's health began to fail about the first of the year and at one time he was near death's door for several weeks, but pulled through and slowly improved. Snecoth, or the Feast of the Tabernacles, a Jewish festival lasting seven days, begins at 6 p. m. today, the last day being called the Feast of Conclusion. Snecoth is a symbol of the dwelling of the Jews in booth or tents in Jerusalem and is also called the Feast of Booths. The feast is also one of thanksgiving to the Lord for the year's blessings. Special services will be held at Temple Israel by Rabbi David Alexander this evening at 8 o'clock and Tuesday morning and for the Feast of Conclusion next Sunday evening and Monday morning.

Rally day and harvest home services were held at the First Cumberland Presbyterian church Sunday morning. There was a good attendance at both services. An attractive program was rendered at the rally day service which was celebrated at the Sunday school hour, and the pastor of the church, Rev. Geo. O. Bachman, preached an excellent sermon at the Harvest home service at 11 o'clock. There was one addition to the church.

The music of a newly organized Sunday school choir at the Broadway Methodist church yesterday morning was unusually creditable, and will be a great addition to the Sunday school of this congregation.

Rev. B. F. Wulfman, pastor of the German Evangelical church of this city, received a call last week to a church in Louisville, but announced yesterday to his congregation here that he had declined it.

THE INDEPENDENTS

An Independent Ticket This Week—Meeting Saturday Night.

A meeting was held at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday night by those back of the move to put out an independent ticket in Paducah. ## GEN. YOUNG COMING

Commander of the U. S. Army to Visit Kentucky.

Atrocious Tragedy Is Reported From Pike County—Dronth in Breath-itt County.

OTHER NEWS OF KENTUCKY

U. S. COMMANDER TO COME.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 5.—Lieutenant General S. B. M. Young, in command of the United States Army, and General Ian Hamilton of the English army probably will visit Camp Young about October 10. A letter was received from them yesterday accepting an invitation to be guests of the Louisville board of trade should they come. They have been perfecting their plans quietly, but it is almost a certainty that they will visit Louisville and Camp Young.

When the directors of the board of trade learned that General Young and General Hamilton were contemplating a trip to witness a portion of the maneuvers they commissioned Logan O. Murray to invite the distinguished army officers to be the board's guests. Mr. Murray received the response yesterday, expressing appreciation of the invitation and accepting it in case the visit is made.

General Young has taken great interest in the maneuvers since they were first contemplated. Because of their being an innovation in American military affairs, he is, of course, watching the result with special eagerness. He was one of those most enthusiastic in favoring the maneuvers as a military educational move. It is hardly probable that he will spend many days in Kentucky and most of the time will be devoted to Camp Young.

TRAGEDY IN PIKE.

Owingsville, Ky., Oct. 5.—A sensational story of murder for revenge comes from Pike county, Ky. A short time ago Robert Christian and J. B. Vance, young mountaineers, became enamored of Miss Mary Wolford, the 16 year old daughter of E. R. Wolford. The girl smiled upon Christian, but turned a deaf ear to Vance's pleadings. Vance then stopped calling on the young woman. Wolford, the girl's father, was opposed to Christian, and he and Vance planned to do away with him. They made open threats. A few weeks ago Christian suddenly disappeared, and as time went on people who had heard Wolford and Vance make threats became suspicious of foul play. A searching party was organized and went to Christian's home, which was some distance back in the mountains. There they found the door riddled with bullets and a bloody trail leading into the mountains. This trail the searching party followed some distance, but returned without discovering anything else. Warrants were issued for Wolford and Vance, but they escaped. A young son of Wolford was arrested and he confessed that Vance had murdered Christian. A posse immediately started on a search for him and if he is captured there is danger of a lynching. A reward of $500 has been offered for both men. The girl is almost crazed with grief over the fate of her lover.

THE EXTRA SESSION.

Washington Oct. 5.—A good deal of pressure has been brought to bear on the president to induce him not to call congress into extraordinary session in November but to all callers who have spoken to him in that vein he has said that this government is committed to the proposition that the Cuban reciprocity treaty be made effective at the earliest possible date and he regards it as a matter of good faith that this country should keep its word. # We Paid $100,000

For Liquozone—Yet We Give You a 50c. Bottle Free!

This company, after testing Liquezone for two years in the most difficult germ diseases, paid $100,000 for the United States' rights. That is by far the highest price ever paid for similar rights on any scientific discovery.

We publish this fact to show you the value of Liquezone. The most worthless product may have great claims made about it; but men don't pay a price like that save for a discovery of remarkable worth to humanity.

Kills Inside Germs.

Liquezone alone kills germs in the body without killing the tissues, too. It is so certain that we publish on every bottle an offer of $1,000 for a disease germ that it cannot kill. Liquezone destroys at once and forever the cause of any germ disease.

And there is no other way to do it. Any drug that kills germs is a poison to you, and it cannot be taken internally. Liquezone alone can attack a trouble that is caused by inside germs; and it cures diseases which medicine never cured.

Liquid Oxygen.

Liquezone is simply liquid oxygen—no drugs, no alcohol in it. It is the discovery of Pauli, the great German chemist, who spent 20 years on it. His object was to get such an excess of oxygen in staple form into the blood that no germ could live in any membrane or tissue. Liquezone does that. Oxygen is Nature's greatest tonic—the very source of vitality. Its effects are exhilarating—purifying, vitalizing. Nothing else in the world is so good for you. But germs are vegetables; and this excess of oxygen—the very life of an animal—is deadly to vegetable matter.

We spend 14 days in making each bottle of Liquezone; but the result is liquid oxygen—a product which will cure diseases which no medical skill can cure without it. It is now employed in every great hospital, and endorsed by every medical authority, the world over.

Germ Diseases.

These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these troubles is to help Nature overcome the germs, and such results are indirect and uncertain. Liquezone kills the germs, wherever they are, and the results are inevitable. By destroying the cause of the trouble, it invariably ends the disease, and forever.

THE ENGINE STARTED

Narrow Escape of Carnival Officer Yesterday.

Was Crossing Train When It Parted and He Fell Heavily.

Mr. Herman Gronau, of Cincinnati, treasurer of the Heck Carnival company, met with a painful accident soon after the company reached Paducah on its special train yesterday afternoon. As a result he will be laid up at least a week, and perhaps longer.

He had started to cross from one car to the other of the train soon after it reached the local yards of the Illinois Central, and did not know that the train had been uncoupled. Just as he started to step from the platform of one car to that of the one in front of him, the engine started with the forward section pulling out of reach, and he fell heavily to the track, bruising his side and back, and probably breaking a few ribs. It is very fortunate that the rear portion of the train was stationary, or it would have passed over him when he fell.

He was removed to his room at Hotel Lagomarsino and Drs. Robertson & Hoyer called. He spent a restful night but is painfully hurt and will not be able to get out for some time yet.

BENTON COURT

ACTING JUDGE REED IS RUSHING THE DOCKET.

Attorney William Reed, who is acting special circuit judge at Benton, Marshall county, returned to Benton this morning to continue court and stated that he would probably finish court this week.

So far there have been but two convictions. A. S. Carfman, charged with mail robbery, was found guilty of a misdemeanor and fined $50 and costs.

John Dunn was found guilty of horse stealing and given two years in the penitentiary.

Charles Pearce was given three years for robbery. There are fifty-four misdemeanor cases on the docket, however, but it will require but a short time to dispose of them.

The grand jury is keeping its work quiet and no returns relative to the alleged fraudulent ballot cases have been made.

SPECIAL EXCURSION TO ST. LOUIS, OCT. 5TH, ACCOUNT OF VEILED PROPHET AND ST. LOUIS FAIR.

On account of the above, the Illinois Central will run a special train Monday, Oct. 5th, to St. Louis, Mo., at $3.00 for the round trip.

Tickets will be good for return on all trains leaving St. Louis up to and including Friday, Oct. 9th.

For further information, apply to J. T. Donovan, Agent, W. H. Main, Ticket Agent, Union Depot.

THE MAN AND THE GNAT.

Find Another Man.

As a clownish fellow was sitting on a bank, a Gnat settled on his leg, and stung it. The Man slapped his leg, meaning to kill the Gnat, but it flew away, and he had nothing but the blow for his pains. Again and again the insect alighted upon the leg; and again and again the Man struck at it, each time more savagely than before. His thigh became bruised all over; but the Gnat was still unharmed and lively. Almost mad with rage and disappointment, the fellow burst into tears. "O mighty Hercules," cried he, "nothing can withstand thy power. Aid me, then, I beseech thee, against this terrible Gnat, which for an hour has tortured me beyond all bearing."

THE GASOLINE BOAT A KENTUCKY MAN

Is an Object of Steamboat Men's Attention.

They Petition Government Officials to Change Existing Regulations.

A petition, signed by all steamboat men, will be sent to the Hon. George Uhler, Supervising Inspector General of steam vessels, at Washington. The St. Louis Waterways Journal says, in publishing the petition: "Something must be done to regulate and place gasoline boats upon the same footing as a steamboat, and it can only be accomplished by united action." Petition—To the Hon. George Uhler, supervising inspector general of steam vessels, Washington, D. C. We, the undersigned, owners of steamboats and licensed officers, do hereby respectfully request your recommendation to Congress at its next session to amend the second paragraph of Section 4,426, Revised Statutes, as follows: Strike out the word "fifteen" and insert in its place the word "five," so as to read "five" tons instead of "fifteen," tons. We ask of you this recommendation for various reasons, some of which we hereby submit, as follows: First—The numerous accidents of this class of boats that have occurred in the past few years, resulting in much loss of life and property. Second—These boats are usually in charge of men who are totally inexperienced and are ignorant of the rules and regulations of navigation, as required by law. Third—They are not required to carry the usual equipments necessary for the safety of life and property, as enforced by the United States inspection service upon steam vessels, and are in direct competition with steam vessels, which are required to navigate according to the laws of the United States inspection service.

Lives at Marion, and Returned Just in Time to claim His Bride.

Harrisburg, Ill., Oct. 4.—The marriage, a few days ago, of Mr. L. C. Carson, of Marion, Ky., to Miss Nellie Ritter, of Galatia, Ill., and Mr. Thomas W. Caskey, of Thompsonville, Ill., to Miss Nellie Bixler, of Eldorado, Ill., ends a pretty romance the opening chapters of which date back nearly two years ago. Mr. Carson and Miss Ritter had been sweethearts in the quiet little village of Galatia, and the course of their love ran along smoothly until about a year ago, when Thomas Caskey appeared upon the scene. A quarrel followed between Carson and his sweetheart. They separated, he going to Kentucky, leaving the field clear for Caskey. Caskey continued his attentions to Miss Ritter, and he finally obtained her consent to a marriage. The date for the wedding was set and about the 16th of last July Caskey came to this city and obtained the necessary marriage credentials. County Clerk Dorris had just finished writing out the license and the ink had hardly become dry, when he received a telephone message from Miss Ritter, asking him not to issue the license, telling him she had changed her mind, but that he would probably have the opportunity of issuing one later. Mr. Caskey expressed his disappointment in no mild terms, but was at a loss to know the cause of the sudden change on Miss Ritter's part. He hurried home and the facts were soon made known. Young Carson had learned of the intended marriage of his former sweetheart to Caskey and at once hurried to break the engagement, which he succeeded in doing during Caskey's absence. A few days ago Carson appeared at the county clerk's office and obtained a license to wed Miss Ritter, and later Caskey secured a license to wed Miss Nellie Bixler, of Eldorado. Both weddings were solemnized on the same day and both couples seemed exceedingly happy over the culmination of their romantic love affairs.

THE TRAIN SMASHES

Freight Wreck Delays Trains on Louisville Division.

No One Seriously Hurt—Two Wrecks in Southern Illinois and One Killed.

TROUBLE AT CALVERT CITY

A freight wreck at Iron Ore Hill, near Kuttawa on the Louisville division of the I. C., caused a serious delay to all south bound passenger trains yesterday afternoon and caused much damage to the railroad but fortunately injuring no one seriously.

The wreck occurred at a short time after 2 o'clock by extra train No. 21 striking extra freight No. 528. Both trains were running south and the latter was heading in first, running behind the second section of train No. 185. The regular freight had become stalled at the foot of the hill and the No. 628 had uncoupled and pushed the train over. When it returned and started up the hill the No. 21 came along and crashed into it, derailing the engine and wrecking the caboose of the No. 628 and also three empty flat cars. The wrecker was sent out from here and after several hours' work cleared the main line sufficiently to enable the trains to come through. Passenger No. 121 was delayed nearly two hours and the No. 101 about half an hour.

The No. 628 was in charge of Conductor Fortner, and Engineer Rogers and the 21 in charge of Conductor E. Welsh and Engineer Fortney. Engineer Fortney jumped and sustained slight bruises but is not seriously injured. The flagman who was on duty to flag the No. 21 did not get far enough back to stop the train which was coming ahead full tilt to make the hill.

A fatal wreck occurred on the Illinois Central yesterday at Assumption, Ill. Fireman Charles Haskitt, of Clinton, was killed outright, his body mangled almost beyond recognition, and Engineer E. Metz, of Clinton, had his right leg cut off above the knee. His chances for recovery are doubtful. The wreck was caused by a train on a siding backing onto the main track in front of an incoming train. The engine and several cars were demolished.

Engineer "Kid" Mathis pulling an extra freight train bound for gravel switch, struck a standing freight train at Calvert City yesterday afternoon at 2:15 and broke out a drawhead. The engine had to return to Paducah and a new one sent ahead to take the caboose to gravel switch and bring back the gravel train. Flagman S. W. Grasty and Fireman A. W. Smith were slightly bruised in jumping.

A passenger train on the Illinois Central ran into a passenger coach of the mixed train at Galatia, Ill. The engine of the passenger train telescoped the coach of the mixed train. Four passengers were seriously hurt and several slightly injured. Moses Gaskins and wife, of Harrisburg, and Mr. Allen, a merchant of Broughton, were among the injured.

PICKED UP BLEEDING

Foreman of the Dry Docks Badly Hurt Today.

Found in Hull of Barge Where He Probably Fell Through Hatch.

Mr. Dick Thomasson, foreman of the Paducah Dry Docks Co., was this morning seriously if not fatally injured in an accident on the dock, the doctors being unable at present to ascertain the exact injuries done.

The foreman about 8 o'clock went down into the hull of a big nine foot model barge and several minutes later was found at the bottom of the hull with his head partially crushed and his side badly mashed. He was unconscious and could tell nothing of the accident after he had become partially rational. It is supposed, however, that he either fell down the hatch or that a big stanchion fell on him.

The patrol wagon was summoned and the injured man removed to his residence on Jackson street where physicians were summoned to dress the injuries.

CROSSED IN SKIFF

Couple From Kentucky Eloped to Metropolis Yesterday.

Reached the Gretna Green at 3 a. m. and Were Married.

The elopement yesterday of Dave Edwards and Miss Harriet Hook of Cerado and Hinkleville, Ballard county, Ky., respectively, was attended by unusually romantic features. They escaped from their homes and outwitting parents quickly drove to the river, being accompanied by B. T. Harris and Lynn Garr.

There was no way to cross the river when they reached Metropolis landing except by skiff, and hiring a fisherman nearby to row them over, the quartet got in and were soon in Metropolis. It was 2 o'clock a. m. when they left the Kentucky shore and about 3 when they started up the hill at Metropolis.

Justice Thomas Liggett, the old reliable "marrying squire," was roused and tied the knot, and the couple returned home at once. They are of good families and the only objection to their marriage was on account of their age.

GERMAN SYRUP.

We want to impress on our readers that Rosche's German Syrup is positively the only preparation on the market today that does relieve and cure consumption. It contains the specific, such as pure tar, extracts of gums, etc., which have been so highly endorsed for the cure of coughs, colds and consumption by the great medical congresses. The consumptive, whether his disease is in the throat or lungs, must have rest at night, and be free from the spasm of dry and racking cough in the morning. The diseased parts want rest, heating and soothing treatment, and the patient needs fresh air, good food, etc. German Syrup will give free and easy expectoration in the morning with speedy and permanent relief. Small bottles, 25 cents; regular size, containing nearly four times as much, 75 cents. At all druggists.

Strain Affected General Health.

Doctor's Doses Weakened Stomach.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Cured Me.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine brings rest and sweet sleep to the tired brain worn out with the cares and anxieties of the sick room. Read the following: "I have always been healthy with the exception of a touch of rheumatism since my age came on, up to the time of my husband's last illness some years ago. I was in nursing my husband for nearly three years when he departed this life and the strain I think caused my trouble. From extreme nervousness my trouble commenced with sore throat and neuralgia. My physician gave me purgative doses which weakened me very much and my stomach for a time seemed inactive. Mental strain and the dormant condition of my stomach soon told upon my general health. I had little appetite and was soon forced to stop bed a greater part of the time. Within a week after the time I began taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Tonic I was up about the house. I continued their use until completely cured. I know of a number of others who have been benefited by experience of other people, my daughter having used Restorative Nervine with splendid results in a case of paralysis and a friend to whom I sent a box of the Anti-Pain Pills reports that she has been completely cured of neuralgia by their use. I know of a number of others whom your medicine has helped in a large degree. I wish you continued success."—MRS. FRANCES COFFMAN, Dayton, Va.

The Innocent Suffer With The Guilty

The world to-day is full of innocent sufferers from that most loathsome disease, Contagious Blood Poison. People know in a general way that it is a bad disease, but if all its horrors could be brought before them they would shun it as they do the Leprosy. Not only the person who contracts it suffers, but the awful taint is transmitted to children, and the fearful sores and eruptions, weak eyes, Catarrh, and other evidences of poisoned blood show these little innocents are suffering the awful consequences of some body's sin. So highly contagious is this form of blood poison that one may be contaminated by handling the clothing or other articles in use by a person afflicted with this miserable disease. There is danger even in drinking from the same vessel or eating out of the same tableware, as many pure and innocent men and women have found to their sorrow. The virus of Contagious Blood Poison is so powerful and penetrating that within a short time after the first little sore appears the whole system is infected and every drop of blood in the body is tainted with the poison, and the skin is soon covered with a red rash, ulcers break out in the mouth and throat, swellings appear in the groins, the hair and eyebrows fall out, and unless the ravages of the disease are checked at this stage, more violent and dangerous symptoms appear in the form of deep and offensive sores, copper colored spots, terrible pains in bones and muscles, and general breaking down of the system.

BLOOD POISON IS NO RESPECTER OF PERSONS

S. S. S. is a specific for Contagious Blood Poison and the only remedy that antidotes this peculiar virus and makes a radical and complete cure of the disease. Mercury and Potash hold it in check so long as the system is under their influence, but when the medicine is left off the poison breaks out again as bad or worse than ever. Besides, the use of these minerals brings on Rheumatism and stomach troubles of the worst kind, and frequently produce bleeding and sponginess of the gums and decay of the teeth. S. S. S. cures Blood Poison in all stages and even reaches down to hereditary taints and removes all traces of the poison and saves the victim from the pitiable consequences of this monster scourge. As long as a drop of the virus is left in the blood it is liable to break out, and there is danger of transmitting the disease to others. S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable and can be taken without any injurious effects to health, and an experience of nearly fifty years proves beyond doubt that it cures Contagious Blood Poison completely and permanently. Write for our "Home Treatment Book," which describes fully the different stages and symptoms of the disease.

PETER PURYEAR,

ELECTION OF 1899: W. S. TAYLOR, 193,714 WM. GOEBEL, 191,331 JOHN YOUNG BROWN, 12,140.

REGISTER TOMORROW.

Every Republican in Paducah is urged to register tomorrow. The polls will be open until 9 p. m., and no one should delay. The Republicans this year see victory ahead if they will register, and no one should wait. It is of the utmost importance that all register the first day. Those who would vote either in the November election or in any primary or other election next year must register this thil. It is hoped that every Republican will do his duty. As former Governor Bradley says in his letter published today, one of the essential preliminaries of victory at the polls—the very foundation of success—is to register. Every Republican, after registering himself, should see that his Republican friends and acquaintances are registered. Owing to the excitement incident to the carnival and fair an unusual effort should be made to register the full strength of the party.

GEN. MURRAY EXPLAINS.

Adjutant General Murray in reply to the charges of Major W. C. Owen, that he, General Murray, has said he received a part of the Calhoun fee, declares that he never got a cent of it. He admits that he may have said he was entitled to something for extra work, or expressed the hope that he would receive something, but he says "there is no obligation on the part of Mr. Calhoun or anyone else to pay me any part of that fee." This sounds rather weak and does not explain why General Murray himself did not do all the work and collect the claim for the state which would have saved it the fee, inasmuch as it was his duty under the law, and he could not collect extra pay for doing it. Here is the law:

"The adjutant general shall be furnished a suitable office in some of the public buildings at the capital of the commonwealth and shall, in addition to his other duties, under the direction of the governor, collect moneys that may be due to the commonwealth on demand of the war claims for arms that supplies furnished by the state to late United States on account of the war. He shall receive an annual salary of $2,000 for all services imposed on him by law, to be paid out of the treasury."

or not, had General Murray done the work and collected the claim, the state would have been $71,000 better off. As it really happened, Captain Calhoun collected it and got about $71,000 for it, and General Murray, whose duty it was, did nothing and according to his statement got nothing. Certainly Captain Calhoun should be very grateful to the adjutant general of the state for the neglect of duty which afforded him the opportunity to rake off such a princely fee for work the adjutant general should have done for nothing. But General Murray may yet be rewarded. He does not say in his carefully guarded explanation that Captain Calhoun, at some more propitious time, may not give him a share, or that he would be averse to accepting it if it should be proffered.

GOV. BRADLEY'S CALL.

Some of the Democratic papers have been trying for several weeks to make it appear that Governor Bradley was taking no interest in the campaign in Kentucky this year, and that he and his friends in the Republican party do not care whether the ticket wins or not. Governor Bradley is too sensible a man to pay any attention to Democratic drivel, and too good a Republican to be in any respect disloyal to his party. He has just written a letter to Chairman John C. Wood of the Republican speakers' bureau which shows where he stands, and that he is for the ticket and intends to work for it. Later on, when he takes the stump the Democrats will have cause to change their minds about his not caring whether the ticket is elected or not, if they really ever thought such a thing. Here is former Governor Bradley's letter:

"Louisville, Ky., Oct. 2, 1903—Hon. John C. Wood, Chairman Speakers' Bureau—Sir: Had my health justified I would have spoken for the Republican party before this and shall certainly speak as soon as able.

"The best interest of the state requires the election of the Republican ticket, and I trust that no man will be found who is not willing to do his duty.

"I hope that no effort will be spared to register the vote in the cities and towns of the commonwealth, as this is the foundation of success, and in the absence of a full and proper registration we cannot hope to win. Your friend,
W. O. BRADLEY."

GET BETTER SANITATION.

Out enterprising neighbor Metropolis, has decided to construct sanitary sewerage. If Paducah had done that when she was the size of Metropolis, many a good citizen might now be among us instead of planted and forgotten. And if people will now connect their homes with the sewerage Paducah finally secured through the enterprise of the Republican council, they may thus save loved ones or friends, or both from serious or fatal illness. Sanitation is too well established a safeguard in all cities of modern times and tendencies to be neglected as it is in Paducah, a busy, hustling city of 25,000 people. The records show that not one-third of the people in the sewer district are using the sewerage, preferring the gutters and alleys. This is a reflection on their intelligence, as well as an imposition on those fellow-citizens who have done their part towards improving public health by connecting with the sewerage. The health officer reports that the death rate increased this summer quite perceptibly, and all, no doubt, because of the lack of sanitation, the city this summer not even having what usually are known as "sanitary inspectors"—who are usually a couple of fellows too feeble or lazy to do anything but kill time. Let's give Paducah better streets and sanitation, and cheat the graveyard.

A Louisville judge has just decided that charitable institutions are not liable to patients for personal injuries sustained through the acts of employees. It is considered an important decision, as it settles a question that seldom, if ever, came up before in this state.

FORMER PADUCAHAN REPORT ED HANGED—The local police have received information that George Herrington, a negro who formerly lived here and escaped from the city marshal's office two years ago by jumping from a window after being arrested for stealing $65 from a farmer, was hanged a few days ago at Peoria, Ill., for killing a police officer.

Cairo Girl Runs Away From Home and Comes Here

Arrested at a House on Second Street and Will Be Taken Back.

Captain Henry Bailey was in Cairo yesterday, and while there was asked by a lady named Porter to find her daughter here, and hold her, until some one came for her. Later the police here received a telephone message from the girl's stepfather, Mr. Porter, of 210 17th street, Cairo, asking them to locate her.

The girl, Miss Ora Ross, was found early this morning at a house on South Second street, and was taken to police headquarters to await the arrival of relatives. She is about 16 years old, rather large for her age, and a brunette.

She says that she became infatuated with the manager of the Japanese show with the carnival and ran away with him. The police understood it was the drummer in the band. She says that she has been with Price's Floating palace, and does not appear to be very much disconcerted by her predicament.

Her relatives have been notified and will be after her by the first train. Meanwhile the officers will have charge of her.

IT'S A MISTAKE

TO ATTRIBUTE COFFEE ILLS TO POOR GRADES OF COFFEE.

Many people lay all the blame for the diseases caused by coffee upon the poorer grades of coffee but this is an error as the following proves: "I have used every kind of the best grade of tea and coffee that can be got from a first class grocer but never found one that would not upset my nervous system and it was not until I began to drink Postum Food Coffee in place of coffee and tea that I had relief from the terrible attacks of nervous sick headache from which I had suffered for 30 years.

"I had tried all kinds of medicines but none helped me.

"Soon after I stopped drinking coffee and began to drink Postum the headaches grew less and it was not long until I was entirely cured and I have never had a return of this distressing trouble for nowadays I never drink coffee but stick to Postum.

"As soon as my wife saw what Postum had done for me she gave up coffee which she had drank all her life. This was six weeks ago and she is a changed woman for her nervousness has all disappeared her face has become smooth and her cheeks have a good rosy red color. She sleeps well, too, something she could never do while she drank coffee. We consider Postum a household necessity in my house and have induced many friends to try this wonderful food drink in place of coffee." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Tonight is the opening of the Payton Sisters company at The Kentucky. They play all the week except tomorrow, Tuesday night, when they lay off, opening again Wednesday with a matinee. Their prices through the week will be 10, 20 and 30 cents with ladies free to see the opening performance tonight. The matinee prices, Wednesday and Saturday are 10 and 20 cents. "Utah," the play to be presented tonight is one of more than usual interest. It is a rural comedy drama, the scenes of which are laid in and about Salt Lake City and depicts life in Utah during the Mormon regime.

"The Sleepy King" as presented by the Walter Jones' Comic Opera company at The Kentucky Tuesday night promises to be the musical surprise of the season in this city. Giovanni Conterno, the New York bandmaster, spent five weeks with the company during rehearsals and incited the members of the company to put his original ideas into the musical numbers, and in many other ways improving the piece. There are twenty-seven distinct musical numbers, many of which are unusually novel and tuneful.

ALICE of OLD VINCENNES

By MAURICE THOMPSON

Copyright, 1900, by the BOWEN-MERRILL COMPANY

"Take this girl into custody. Confine her and put a strong guard over her."

In giving the order Hamilton jerked his thumb contemptuously toward Alice and at the same time gave Beverly a look of supreme defiance and hatred. When Helm began to speak he turned fiercely upon him and stopped him with:

"None of your advice, sir. I have had all I want of it. Keep your place or I'll make you."

Then to Beverly: "Retire, sir. When I wish to see you I'll send for you. At present you are not needed here."

The English lieutenant saluted his commander, bowed respectfully to Alice and said:

"Come with me, miss, please."

Helm and Beverly exchanged a look of helplessness and inquiring rage. It was as if they had said: "What can we do? Must we bear it?" Certainly they could do nothing. Any interference on their part would be sure to increase Alice's danger and at the same time add to the weight of their own humiliation.

Alice silently followed the officer out of the room. She did not even glance toward Beverly, who moved as if to interfere and was promptly motioned back by the guard. His better judgment, returning, held him from a rash and futile act until Hamilton spoke again, saying loudly as Alice passed through the door:

"I'll see who's master of this town if I have to shoot every French holden in it!"

"Women and children may well fear you, Colonel Hamilton," said Beverly. "That young lady is your superior."

"You say that to me, sir!"

"It is the best I could possibly say of you."

"I will send you along with the wench if you do not guard your language. A prisoner on parole has no license to be a blackguard."

"I return you my parole, sir. I shall no longer regard it as binding," said Beverly, by a great effort holding back a blow. "I will not keep faith with a scoundrel who does not know how to be decent in the presence of a young girl. You had better have me arrested and confined. I will escape at the first opportunity and bring a force here to reckon with you for your villainy. And if you dare hurt Alice Housillon I will have you hanged like a dog!"

Hamilton looked at him scornfully.

"I thought I ordered you to leave this room," he said, with an air and tone of lofty superiority. "And I certainly mean to be obeyed. Go, sir, and if you attempt to escape or in any way break your parole I'll have you shot."

"I have already broken it. From this moment I shall not regard it. You have heard my statement. I shall not repeat it. Govern yourself accordingly."

With these words Beverly turned and strode out of the house quite beside himself, his whole frame quivering.

Hamilton laughed derisively, then looked at Helm and said:

"Helm, I like you, I don't wish to be unkind to you, but positively you must quit breaking in upon my affairs with your ready made advice. I've given you and Lieutenant Beverly too much latitude, perhaps. If that young fool doesn't look sharp he'll get himself into a beastly lot of trouble. You'd better give him a talk. He's in a way to need it just now."

"I think so myself," said Helm, glad to get back upon fair footing with the irascible governor. "I'll wait until he cools off somewhat, and then I can manage him. Leave him to me."

"Well, come walk with me to see what has really happened to Farnsworth. He's probably not much hurt and deserves what he's got. That girl has turned his head. I think I understand the whole affair—a little love, a little wine, some foolishness, and the wench shot him."

Helm genially assented, but they were delayed for some time by an officer who came in to consult with Hamilton on some pressing Indian affairs. When they reached Housillon place they met Beverly coming out, but he did not look at them. He was scarcely aware of them. A little way outside the gate, on going in, he had picked up Alice's locket and broken chain, which he mechanically put in his pocket. It was all like a dream to him, and yet he had a clear purpose. He was going away from Vincennes, or at least he would try to go, and was he to Hamilton on his coming back. It was so easy for an excited young mind to plan great things and to expect success under apparently impossible conditions. Beverly gave Jean a note for Alice. It was this that took him to Housillon place, and no sooner fell the night than he shouldered a gun furnished him by Mme. Godere and, guided by the woodsman's line craft, stole away southward, thinking to swim the icy Wabash some miles below and then strike across the plains of Illinois to Kaskaskia.

CHAPTER XII. A BARRER THIRST.

BEVERLEY'S absence was not noticed by Hamilton until late on the following day, and even then he scouted Helm's suggestion that the young man was possibly carrying out his threat to disregard his parole.

"He would be quite justified in doing it. You know that very well," said Helm, with a laugh. "And he's just the man to undertake what is impossible. Of course he'll get scolded for his trouble, and that will cost you something, I'm happy to say."

"It is a matter of small importance," Hamilton replied, "but I'll wager you the next today that he's not at the present moment a half mile from this spot. He may be a fool—I readily grant that he is—but even a fool is not going to set out alone in this kind of weather to go to where your rebel friends are probably toasting their shins by the fire of green logs and half starving over yonder on the Mississippi."

"Joking aside, you are doubtless right. Beverly is hot headed, and if he could he'd get even with you quick enough, but he hasn't left Vincennes, I think. Miss Housillon would keep him here if the place were on fire."

Hamilton laughed dryly. He had thought just what Helm was saying. Beverly's attention to Alice had not escaped his notice.

"Speaking of that girl," he remarked after a moment's silence, "what am I to do with her? There's no place to keep her, and Farnsworth insists that she wasn't to blame." He chuckled again and added:

"It's true as gospel. He's in love with her too. Seems to be glad she shot him. Says he's ashamed of himself for ever suspecting her of anything but being a genuine angel. Why, he's got as fussy as a rabbit and mumbles like a fool."

"Same as you or I at his age," said Helm, taking a chew of tobacco. "She is a pretty thing. Beverly doesn't know his foot from his shoulder blade when she's anywhere near him. Boys are boys. I'm a sort of boy myself."

"If she'd give up that flag I'd let her go," said Hamilton. "I hate to confine her. It looks brutal and makes me feel like a tyrant."

"Have you ever happened to notice the obvious fact, Governor Hamilton, that Alice Housillon and Father Heret are not all the French in Vincennes?"

"What do you mean?"

"I mean that I don't for a moment believe that either the girl or the priest knows a thing about where that flag is. They are both as truthful and honorable as people ever got to be. I know them. Somebody else got that flag from under the priest's floor. You may depend upon that. If Miss Housillon knew where it is she'd say so and then dare you to make her tell where it's hidden."

"Oh, the whole town is rotten with treason! That's very clear. There's not a loyal soul in it outside of my forces."

"Thank you for not including me among the loyalists."

"Humph! I spoke of these French people. They pretend to be true, but I believe they are all traitors."

"You can manage them if you try. A little jolly kindness goes a long way with 'em. I had no trouble while I held the town."

Hamilton bit his lip and was silent. Helm was exasperatingly good tempered, and his jocularly was irresistible. While he was yet speaking a guard came up, followed by Jean, the hunchback, and, saluting, said to Hamilton:

"The lad wants to see the young lady, sir."

Hamilton gazed quizzically at Jean, who planted himself in his habitual attitude before him and stared up into his face with the grotesque expression which seems to be characteristic of hunchbacks and unfledged birds—the look of an embodied and hideous joke.

"Well, sir, what will you have?" the governor demanded.

"I want to see Alice, if you please."

"What for?"

"I want to give her a book to read."

"Ah, indeed. Where is it? Let me see it."

Jean took from the breast of his loose jerkin a small volume, dog eared and mildewed, and handed it to Hamilton. Meantime he stood first on one foot, then on the other, gnawing his thumb nail and blinking rapidly.

"Well, Helm, just look here!"

"What?"

"Haven't you ever read it?"

"Read what?"

"This novel."

"Never read a novel in my life; never expect to."

Hamilton laughed freely at Helm's expense, then turned to Jean and gave him back the book.

LOESER'S TROUBLES

An Effort by Creditors to Force Him Into Bankruptcy.

He Returned to Paducah and the Papers Were Served—Says He Was Drugged.

LOST $2100, HE CLAIMS

Julius Loeser, until recently in the dry goods business at 106 South Second street, has discovered that misfortunes never come singly. He claims to have been robbed of about $2100 at Carbondale, Ill., last Thursday by being given "knockout" drops by a stranger. He returned to the city Saturday evening and Deputy U.S. Marshal Hubbard served on him involuntary bankruptcy papers.

The petition to force him into voluntary bankruptcy was filed by Wheeler & Hughes for Brohm Brothers, Hecht Bros. & Co., and the Jacob Hat and Glove Co., of St. Louis. It is understood that there are numerous other claims against him amounting to perhaps as much as $6,000 or $7,000.

It is claimed in the petition that the transfer of his store on Second street a few days ago to others was illegal and fraudulent and to defraud creditors, and if the federal court grants the petition it will be taken charge of for the benefit of creditors.

Loeser claims he left Paducah for the purpose of paying some bills at Cairo and St. Louis, and that he met a stranger on the train between Cairo and Carbondale. He had paid a bill of $500 at Cairo, he claims, and had about $2100 in $100 and $50 bills when he boarded the train at Cairo. The stranger claimed to be named Johnson and to live at Effingham, Ill., and after eating together at a restaurant at Carbondale Loeser accepted a drink from the stranger's bottle and began to get drowsy from drugs or "knockout drops." He was then assaulted and robbed, and was found by some girls who work in a restaurant. Loeser stated today to a reporter

Shoffner-Hayes Medicine Co., Paducah, Ky. In 1901 my mother commenced taking Hayes' Beechwood Emulso-Hypo with Iron, when the doctors said her lungs were so badly involved that she would not likely be alive but a few weeks.
